TOPAZ 1968

Look. . . .
and there in the long grass,
a painted rusty doll and age,
and a slice of new sky.
from when the air was big and rain dropped with a good smell and sometimes to listen and see the wind, and laugh because lemon lollipops tickle and turn tongues yellow, like the sun,
which is probably a sticky, yellow lollipop,
only bigger.
and pretend that the little brown ant is really a big white horse, like in the story.

but it's all a lot smaller and people are known,
and it can't be the same to run and breathe
because there was the Last Day, unremembered and without goodbye,
of a painted rusty doll and age,
and a slice of new sky.

June 1968

Dear Graduates,

The Class of 1968 will be associated forevermore with the Tenth Anniversary of this school. For it was back in 1958 that this school was founded and that it adopted as its goal "The Pursuit of Excellence".

Since that time some 6000 young men and young women have gone forth into adult life as our graduates. That hundreds of these young people have achieved excellence is known to us from the reports from colleges, professional schools, employers, community leaders, and from other sources. Each of us teachers here wishes each of you similar success as you leave us.

But individual success will be meaningless in the very special days ahead unless society too has its success and the general welfare deepens in excellence. Ahead of all of us are the challenges implicit in current campaigns for greater equality of opportunity for all men, for the extension of full civil rights to all citizens, for the elimination of poverty, for the triumph of a United Nations that will build peace and prevent war.

No one of these campaigns is sure of early success; no one of these goals is inseparable from the others. The British statesman Edmund Burke once warned that "The only thing that is necessary for the triumph of evil is for good men to do nothing". If society is to "succeed" and to have its "excellence" you young people must join the ranks of "good men" and THEN you must do something.

With affectionate good wishes for happiness and serenity—

Cordially

It's happening—today
goodbye has been spoken and the beautiful children start with no fear and many questions—

We did pride, love, hope
With no guilt

The words have been spoken and the action, clothed in shades of pastel thoughts of bright and unspoken futures

Life,

guides us now!

Eyes and hearts open—

The old assails us and screams with

And we,

TO SCHOOL

S.B.H.S. GROWS UP now we are ten

Sheepshead Bay H. S. opened in September 1958. However, its temporary quarters were at James Madison H. S. and Abraham Lincoln H. S. because the school in Sheepshead Bay had not yet been completed. Finally, April 1, 1959 the students moved into the new building in Sheepshead Bay. We've come a long way since then. Starting with only 860 students and 39 teachers, Sheepshead has grown to a school with over 4000 students and over 250 teachers.

October 9, 1959, the first issue of the Bay Times was published. It set the tough standard for future reporting by printing some excellent stories, one which told the interested student that the site of Sheepshead had originally been a vegetable farm. Other exciting events in the first year of the school were:

The opening of the adult evening center.

Mr. Friedman's statement that the school was complete except for some changes that had to be made. Mr. Friedman also urged the students of Sheepshead to think of the school as a big family.

The G.O. store also opened the first year.

Sheepshead was officially dedicated May 3, 1960.

The first annual Varsity Show was presented, and in the immortal words of the Bay Times, was full of "fun and frolic."

As the years rolled on and our family underwent a population explosion, the excitement grew to greater heights than ever before. In the school year 1960-1961:

The first annual Brotherhood Award was given.

The Korean orphan was adopted. Her name is Ai Ja Bang.

The first senior prom was held at the Waldorf-Astoria.

The first senior class graduated January 30, 1961

In the school year 1961-1962:

The new athletic field was deemed "almost complete" by the Bay Times, SBHS's award-winning newspaper.

The April 1 issue of the Bay Times announced that the school was sinking rapidly. Gleeful students rejoiced over the news, but grieved when it was discovered that the article was only an April Fool's joke.

In the school year 1962-1963

The first inter-grade talent show was held. Later titled Sing, this has become the most popular event of the school year and is now an institution in our school. Naturally, the seniors won the first Sing.

Plans for the construction of a new wing were announced in the April Fool issue of the Bay Times. It was planned for completion in 1968. In the event that it would not be needed, it would be torn down and turned into a faculty parking lot. Naturally, it was torn down and turned into a faculty parking lot.

In the school year 1963-1964

The first annual Hootenanny was presented. Seniors won Sing. The New Wing construction date was moved up three years to 1965.

1964-1965

Angry parents boycotted school for the first two days in protest to proposed integration plans. However, this did not seriously affect class attendance as very few parents are enrolled in Sheepshead Bay H.S.

President Johnson won a mock election by 2000 votes. In another mock event, Sheepshead won It's Academic.

In the school year 1965-1966

This year's senior class entered Sheepshead just in time for the opening of the new wing, which has a capacity for 1,000.

In a student election, John Lindsay won the mayorality race. And in Sing, the Junior class triumphed for the first time. Also the Kennedy Lounge was opened February 18.

The late student court was founded during this term.

In the school year 1966-1967

The school became a four year high school with the new change in the school system. We went on double session. O'Connor won in a mock election over Rockefeller. For the first time, Sheepshead's students were wrong!

The graduating class in June is the seventh in Sheepshead's history. That makes us the eighth.

In the school year 1967-1968

That's this year. You all know what happened. It was the year we won Sing. It was the year we lost to both schools on It's Academic. It is the year of the eighth graduating class (that's us). It's the year we'll all go to college, to work, or to war.

ALICE IN SENIORLAND

Alice was posing on the corner of Nostrand and W., when a not-so-bad-looking boy walked by, wearing an orange jacket, a big orange and black shiny pin (she couldn't quite make out the lettering) and an orange and white Robin Hood hat with a big orange feather. The feather tickled her fancy so she followed him all the way to Batchelder Street. She followed him through the gate, through two sets of glass doors, past a wall of multi-colored bricks which quite obviously spelled out Pursuit of Excellence, then down a narrow staircase, through the hall, until she finally came to a small hideaway called B99. The door said Senior Office on it. Alice was very humbled. She walked in.

She was immediately questioned by one boy who was wearing 10 of those big orange and black buttons across his chest, and was balancing 7 of those orange and white hats on his head. "Who are you?"

Now Alice had felt she was losing her identity from the moment she entered the building, so she fumbled for one of her mirrors which she always kept handy. She stared at herself and then answered, quite reassured, "I'm Alice." She walked further into the room and saw 10 or 12 boys and girls sitting on a table, all wearing those funny buttons and silly hats.

Alice's entrance created hushed whisperings of "I never saw her before . . . not only didn't I ever see her before, but she's not collegiate!" Amidst these observations, the 7-hatted-boy walked over to Alice with a book entitled Topaz, placed her right hand on the cover, and said, "Do you senior swear to tell the truth?"

"Huh?" said Alice.

"Now tell me, Alice, as a conscientious senior, do you cut at least 5 classes a week, make sure not to do your homework everyday, especially holidays, weekends and weekdays?"

"I beg your pardon," begged Alice.

"Were you in Sing? Did you see the Senior Show?"

"Who me?" asked Alice.

Now the 7-hatted-boy had learned many things in his years of SBHS schooling. Most important, he learned that the most efficient and accurate way of evaluating someone's knowledge was through a multiple choice test. He was determined to give Alice a fair chance to find out whether or not she was a true SBHS senior.

"Okay, Alice, now tell me. Girls are not permitted to wear pants to school because a) teachers aides think skirts are prettier, b) if you are too comfortable, you won't be able to concentrate on PAD, c) because.

"Uhhh . . ."

"Don't skirt around the issue," the 7-hatted-boy reprimanded. "I'll give you one last chance. . . . Mr. Sheepshead is a) a direct descendant of old Grandad Sheepshead, the notorious man whom the school was named after, b) the coolest boy in the school, c) the coolest boy out of the 3 candidates who think they're the coolest boy in the school.

Alice sneezed.

"Have a cold?"

"No thanks. I already have one," Alice answered politely.

"Off with her senior Button" screamed the 7-hatted-boy, chasing her around the senior office. But she had none.

Alice ran out of the senior office, through the hall, up the staircase, past the multi-colored wall, through one glass door. But Alice was stopped by a teacher's aide. Alice had no pass.

Listen at the frozen door

I've listened there before.
There's quite a lot to hear of things that never show.

The candlelight is cold and blue and makes a feeble glow.
I'll wait outside for you until you draw too near;
  I really ought to go
The fur trees shake and sometimes sigh before the wind-blown moon.
The grey clouds burst the sky and though there is some time,
the snow is coming soon.
An oil lamp burns outside my room and makes a yellow light that melts in golden gloom.
I sucked once on a candied lime and then it seemed all right.

SING

It was many and many a year ago
In a high school by the way,
That a class there was whom you may know
As the Sophomores of Sheepshead Bay.
And this class it lived with no other thought
Than with Sing to win this day.

I was a Soph and you were a Soph
In this high school by the way,
Midst Confusion with Sloopy and Wanda the Witch
And their knights of yesterday;
When we all reminisced about King Arthur's court
In Camelot so far away.

And when we were Juniors so long ago
Conforming—our way of life,
We decided to live in a stifling shell
Each of us so much alike.
New leaders tried to show us the way
With solutions right there in sight.

In time we were told how blind we had been
Our old ways would never do,
The facade we assumed had finally worn thin
The prospect was shallow and blue.
A decision was reached cast off our masks;
The web could be broken through.

Now our spirit was higher by far than before
And as Cool Seniors we'd finally prove
The '68 Class was ready to score
With Senior Spirit on the move.

Decisions were tallied, as tension grew
The torch had done its work well.
We're finally among the victorious few
As winners we there will dwell.
And thus we'll remember in some future day
All our tears and our triumphs in Sheepshead Bay.

Seniors '83

Athletically speaking, the class of '68 will be remembered as one of the finest aggregations of sportsmen in the first decade of SBHS.

The Mermen captured the city championship by defeating Aviation H. S., 51-44. Combining veteran strength and a bumper rookie crop, the squad splashed its way to an undefeated season. Seniors Richard Stone, October Athlete of the Month, Ben Caldes, school record holder in the backstroke, Lewis Sterler, Michael Slutzky, Joey Gelfand, Stan Teplitz and Glen Soffin spearheaded the attack.

Compiling the best won-lost record in Foilsmen history, this year's Fencing team won the division title. Captain David Kronenfeld set a record for consecutive victories, finished second in the individual city championship and tied for first in the C.C.F.L. meet. Elliot Gamberg's 11-3 mark proved to be a key factor in the Foilsmen success.

A power laden offensive line and a stalwart defense enabled the Bootmen to produce their best season in ten years. Scoring more goals than their opposition, the squad attained a respectable fourth place finish. Captain Zofar Swirsky, the team MVP, and co-captain Aron Itzkovitz, who set records for most goals tallied in one game (4) and season high goal total (10), sparked the team.

Maintaining a 6-4 record, the Keglers ended their first season in five years without a division championship. Allan "Happy" Kaplan, November Athlete of the Month, paced the team. Seniors Steve Vallas, Dennis Hasher and Marshall Kaplan rolled important matches in the triumphs.

Rebounding after a dismal start to knot their season's mark at 7-7, the Skippers' last seconds victories brought packed houses to their feet, stomping and cheering, while last minute reversals caused anguish. Mike Weiner, field goal percentage leader and possessor of season's game high of 28, Jay Segal, the floor general and team leader in assists, and Roy Steinback, a defensive specialist and fine shooter sparked the team in the backcourt. Up front, Gregg Barnes, the leading offensive threat and a clutch rebounder, and Larry Pyser, a top point producer and valuable defensive ballplayer led the starting five.

The Boosters and Cheerleaders provided nice scenery for all our home games. Booster captains Sharon Frankel, Robin Geller and Bonnie Thurschwell and Cheerleader captains Nina Anslow and Noreen Commins are to be commended.

Finishing with a 6-2 record in dual meets, the Harriers placed third in their division and tied for first in the Kiwanis Meet. Seniors Joey Holtz, Bruce Saks, Stewart Warner and Gerald Glickman excelled.

With a 5-1-1 record, the Gymnasts ended the season in second place. Captain Howard Friedman inspired the attack with seniors Martin Gordon and Robert Beller also playing important roles.

The '68 Seniors edged the Faculty in a pulsating double overtime thriller. Gary Lynn's overall hustle, and the scoring touch of Willie Moyler and Freddie Weiner highlighted the evening.

SBHS also excelled in certain categories which are not revealed in a box score. In addition to fine individual efforts and team championships, SBHS athletes displayed good sportsmanship, team play and constant determination for victory.

At press time, the Spring teams had just entered the training phase of their seasons. However, if they live up to their potential, the Wallmen, the Diamondmen, the Linkmen and the outdoor Cindermen will uphold SBHS's banner high.

Big deal.
It's no bringdown, or disgrace,
It's rather normal, not to run,
But to sit,
  to think,
    to contemplate
Why you're running; why you do these things.
To resolve not to go on; especially
When you feel these things are actions
Of one who is weak,
  If you're healthy,
    don't ruin it.
Don't get caught in the hassle
  If they're sick,
    don't catch it.
Don't run from it,
Or isolate yourself.
Instead, taste it.
  If it agrees with you become a part of it.
But never let it become a part of you, Because then,
  you've caught it.

Barbara Denberg

Dear Gary-

I really don't know where to begin. We've had a very unusual but great relationship. I'll never forget CAT ROCK most of all. Every time I go or will go to the beach, I know I'll think of you and my senior year. We have both repressed our emotions, but deep inside they're there. My only consolation is that you're not going to an out of town college so that we'll be able to continue to spend time together in the future. I'm both flattered and a little choked up about your inscription in my book. I deeply regret that it couldn't have been any other way. Circumstances and people were impediments in our path. I think we've both matured, even though we've been hurt, from our experiences. The pain decreases, but the memories will always be present in my mind. I'm really thrilled that I got to know you so well, I think better than most people are lucky enough to. I know I won't have to say goodbye because our feelings will always continue to keep us in touch! Stay as Great as you are. I know you'll get only the best because that's all you deserve.

I'm sorry.

All my love,

Shelley

Dear Graduate:

Graduation is a most important time in any family's life. A time to reflect about the many good things that have happened in the last four years ... and a time to think about the years ahead.

I am certain that you have considered furthering your education, either in college or in the many fine trade or nursing schools which are available. Perhaps you have already made a decision ... we hope it was to continue your education.

Now here's how we can help!

Under a cooperative arrangement with the New York Higher Education Assistance Corporation you may borrow from $750. to $1,500. a year with a maximum of $7,500. for attending college ... lesser amounts for trade schools. You make no payments and there are no interest charges while you are in school. Upon termination of studies you can take up to six years to repay. Loans are made directly to the student ...no co-signers are needed. Dial the telephone numbers listed below for additional information.

May we take this occasion to congratulate you on your graduation and to wish you a successful and rewarding future.

Cordially,

Michael J. Burke
